You have heard the term before, Hamilton, and seen it in print and you are going to see it again, extensively. Just wait. I am busy with other fish to fry, but will get to you.

I am not looking for one's opinion. I am looking for a document that used the term. This is again a skirting of the issue. Please provide an actual historical document that includes the term "continental marshal".

Glad to refer you to the sources -- I quoted one today, Howard Freeman, a Wyomingian who did as much as any researcher or historian ever to clearly explain the use of words with respect to the various jurisdictions-- not only air, land, and sea, but within the sea the continental, territorial and municipal jurisdictions.

I will post one of his best articles on my webpage and FB for your erudition and when I get back to my desk will forward it directly to you.

Anna,

You have again skirted the issue. You keep claiming that the continental marshals have been around for 200 years, but NEVER provide any evidence of it. Show me one single historical document that uses that terminology. Just one. You cannot. Again you claim that we have not shown one documented complaint. That too is not true. I have shown you two. There are more coming. The copyright is one and libel is the other. That is not hearsay. The libel against me is an injury against me personally and I have posted that evidence at afreecountry.com/evidence. You will see her own words in that evidence. You just do not want to admit that Haywood has repeatedly caused injuries against others and keep calling it hearsay. So if someone hurts you and you told me about it, I should not believe you, because it is just hearsay, right?

Again, stop skirting the issue and provide the evidence rather than your

You haven't come up with even ONE documented complaint, Hamilton. Not one. Neither has Doucette. Just a lot of hearsay and "feelings" and gossip. If you had anything real against her, you should have dealt with it appropriately--- but you didn;t and that shows what you are.

The rest of us who are intent on restoring our lawful government will continue on and we will be organized correctly and we will have our paperwork in order and we will deal fairly and justly and rationally with whatever comes. Our integrity will show and our determination, also. In time, hopefully soon, we will have funding for the lawful government.

Those counties that organize themselves according to the law and The Constitution and who verify the political status of their members will get funding. Those that don't, won't.

I am completely and absolutely and forever immune to your opinion or anyone else's. I answer to God alone, and to my own conscience, which is as clear as a blue-sky summer day. I do not think that your propoganda against me will work, for the simple reason that it isn't true and that you own bad character will catch up to you sooner than later.

This is not and never has been and never will be about me, and any supposed Vatican ties of a Lutheran girl from the Midwest who has fought the battle with the Church since she was eleven, will be very self-evidently denied your simplistic and frankly, stupid, interpretation very soon.

You, Sir, are either a fool or a tool, and it is not my part to worry too much about either one. You are the one who will have to stand before the living God and confess your sins. Not I.

Anna, the only people who have been acting immaturely are you and Haywood. You have not been able to post any disagreement with anyone without using belittling commentary. This is very revealing of ones insecurity. I had a disagreement with both Rodger and Bruce today and none of us spoke condescending to each other, called each other a name or use profanity toward one another. I can only conclude by your actions that you are either very ignorant of law or working for someone who wants to see us fail. It takes little time to see that the name "continental marshals" has not once ever been used anywhere in history. It also seems obvious to me when you point out in an article that the air, land and sea jurisdictions are fictions of the Vatican and you are now trying to get our continental marshals in said jurisdiction. That makes you look like the enemy. You would not believe the number of people who now view you with suspicion after reading your work for years and seeing what you have been saying of late. So many have come to me so say they are no longer following you because it appears you were turned. You have contradicted your own work, or so it appears to many people. Including me.

It is over. Haywood is out and we are proceeding. Haywood and her followers will not be using the name continental marshals and yes, we are prepared to go to court if need be. Changing the size of someone else's work would be no different than me copying your work but printing it in a larger font, then calling myself the sole author.

We are in fact the Public-- we have merely been usurped into the Private domain.

Time to grow up and face The Mirror, Mr. Hamilton.

The term "public" only refers to the defacto. This serves as more evidence that Anna is attempting to keep the people under the rule of the corporations. Very suspicious.

This Notice is issued to the Public in regard to the activities of Bruce Doucette and Michael R. Hamilton taking place as an unverifiable conference call March 22, 2017 claiming to have authority to alter Public Law, commandeer Public Offices, have ownership rights to the name "Continental Marshals" which has been an office of the lawful government of the united States of America for over 200 years, claims to have authority granted to them to change the nature, duties, authorities, jurisdiction, and chain of command of the Continental Marshals a fiat by an unrecognizable multi-state group merely calling itself a "national assembly" when the only true national assembly is vested in the Continental Congress----let all be made aware that this is an act of gross judicial misconduct amounting to criminal negligence.

Insomuch as these men have agreed to honor the office of State Justices and have not honored the Public Law and have not proceeded according to Due Process and have not made a Good Faith effort to ascertain the facts and take the oaths of the offices that they have occupied and have not corrected their political status and have not deserved the respect and the trust that they have been given, let all free men and women who value their freedom be advised that no authority over the Continental Marshals belongs to any single state assembly, to any Grand Jury, to any State Justice or any State Militia leader.

Continental Marshals operate as Federal-level officers employed by the states and the people to defend and protect their un-delegated rights and material interests in the international jurisdiction still owed to us. As such they are officers and members of the Federal Postal District Courts and are not subject to review by any Grand Jury unless they are accused of a crime.

Chief Marshal Bella Haywood has not been accused nor found guilty of any crime, but she has been the victim of a great deal of ill-founded gossip and false assumptions made by others. Any action taken by those appearing on any conference call will have exactly the weight and authority of any phone call made by gullible people gossiping among themselves and attempting to usurp powers beyond their lawful offices.
