Notice of Fraud No. 24

The FBI stole the 23rd publication of Notice of Fraud before it could be made public

NOTICE TO PRINCIPAL IS NOTICE TO AGENT/NOTICE TO AGENT IS NOTICE TO PRINCIPAL APPLICATIONS TO ALL SUCCESSORS AND ASSIGNS ALL ARE WITHOUT EXCUSE

Under penalty of law, Secretary of State's Office and the County Clerk and Recorder's Office is to forward to all listed below.

WARNING: Seeking legal advice from any attorney is self-admission that you are incompetent/not qualified for the office that you occupy. 1 The Constitutions are your contract with the People. You have no excuse for ignorance of your contract.2

An ongoing investigation has revealed that none of those listed below are qualified for the position/office that they currently occupy. The Colorado Constitution and the General Laws3 require each one of you listed below to have an Official Bond filed with your Oath of Office. The purpose of the Official Bond is to bind the elected official to her/his Oath of Office. The few who have an Official Bond either filed it late and/or were sworn in by an official who did not qualify for their position/office.4 Some have no Oath of Office on file at all. Therefore, you are all occupying a vacant office, fraudulently and feloniously embezzling public funds.

Soon the People in Colorado and your County will become aware of this. It may be far better to publicly appear and defend or resign forthwith. Failure to deny is to admit. This is the 21st Publication of the Notice of Fraud since June 4, 2015.

<sup>3</sup> General Laws 555. Sec. 128 Every county officer named in this article shall, before entering upon the duties of his office, on or before the day of commencement of the term for which he was elected, execute and deposit his official bond, as prescribed by law; and any officer shall also take and subscribe the oath of office prescribed by law, before some officer authorized to administer oaths, and deposit the same with his official bond, to be filed and preserved therewith.

<sup>4</sup> A person chosen to fill a term of office is not permitted to assume the duties of the office until he files a bond and oath of office, which must be done before the commencement of the term, or the office shall be deemed vacant. People v Quimby, 152 Colo. 231, 381 P.2d 275 (1963).

ADDRESS TO THE PEOPLE (IN) COLORADO

"The end sought to be accomplished was to secure a just and economical administration of the Departments of State, and, with this purpose in view, especial effort was made to restrict the powers of the Legislative Department, by making all laws general and of uniform operation; to establish uniformity in the Judicial Department - thereby furthering the ends of justice; to prevent the corruption of public officials; to provide for the safe keeping of all public funds, and to protect the people from unjust monopolies, and the oppression consequent upon the voting of bonds and other kinds of indebtedness to corporations." See page 54

BILL OF RIGHTS

"In this article, the usual guarantees of national and civil rights have been retained and to the end that more power should be reserved to the people, it is further declared that the General Assembly shall make no irrevocable grants of special privileges or immunities; that private property shall not be taken or damaged for public or private use without just compensation previously made to the owner thereof, or paid into court for his use; that no preference shall be given by law to religious denominations; that right and justice shall be administered without sale, denial or delay; that aliens, who are bona fide residents of the State, shall acquire, inherit, possess and enjoy property to the full extent as if native-born citizens. The Grand Jury system has been so modified as to make a grand jury consist of twelve men instead of twenty-three - any nine of whom concurring may find a bill, and the question whether it may not be abolished altogether is left to the legislature. The Petit Jury system has been so modified as to permit the organization of a jury of less than twelve men in civil cases, thereby materially reducing the expenses of our courts. The right of trial by jury in all criminal cases has been preserved, and for the purpose of protecting witnesses in criminal prosecutions, and that the accused may always meet the witnesses against him face to face." pages 54 & 55

Article II, Section 2 of the Colorado Constitution

"The people of this state have the sole and exclusive right of governing themselves, as a free, sovereign and independent state; and to alter and abolish their constitution and form of government whenever they may deem it necessary to their safety and happiness, provided, such change be not repugnant to the constitution of the United States."

Article V, Section 25 of the Colorado Constitution

"The general assembly shall not pass local or special laws in any of the following enumerated cases, that is to say; for granting divorces; laying out, opening, altering or working roads or highways; vacating roads, town plats, streets, alleys and public grounds; locating or changing county seats; regulating county or township affairs; regulating the practice in courts of justice; regulating the jurisdiction and duties of police magistrates; changing the rules of evidence in any trial or inquiry; providing for changes of venue in civil or criminal cases; declaring any person of age; for limitation of civil actions or giving effect to informal or invalid deeds; summoning or impaneling grand or petit juries; providing for the management of common schools; regulating the rate of interest on money; the opening or conducting of any election, or designating the place of voting; the sale or mortgage of real estate belonging to minors or others under disability; the protection of game or fish; chartering or licensing ferries or toll bridges; remitting fines, penalties or forfeitures; creating, increasing or decreasing fees, percentage or allowances of public officers; changing the law of descent; granting to any corporation, association or individual the right to lay down railroad tracks; granting to any corporation, association or individual any special or exclusive privilege, immunity or franchise whatever. In all other cases, where a general law can be made applicable no special law shall be enacted."

Article XII, Section 7 of the Colorado Constitution

"Every member of the General Assembly shall, before he enters upon his official duties, take an oath or affirmation to support the Constitution of the United States and of the State of Colorado, and to faithfully perform the duties of his office according to the best of his ability. This oath, or affirmation, shall be administered in the hall of the House to which the member shall have been elected."

Article XII, Section 8 of the Colorado Constitution

The United States Supreme Court held in Carter v. Carter Coal Company, 298 U.S.

238, 297: "And the Constitution itself is in every real sense a law - the lawmakers being the people themselves, in whom under our system all political power and sovereignty primarily resides, and through whom such power and sovereignty primarily speaks. It is by that law, and not otherwise, that the legislative, executive, and judicial agencies which it created exercise such political authority as they have been permitted to possess. The Constitution speaks for itself in terms so plain that to misunderstand their import is not rationally possible. 'We the People of the United States' it says, 'do ordain and establish this Constitution.' Ordain and establish! These are definite words of enactment, and without more would stamp what follows with the dignity and character of law. The framers of the Constitution, however, were not content to let the matter rest here, but provided explicitly - 'This Constitution, and the Laws of the United States which shall be made in Pursuance thereof, shall be the supreme Law of the the Land.' (Const. art. 6, cl. 2.) The supremacy of the Constitution as law is thus declared without qualification. That supremacy is absolute; the supremacy of a statute enacted by Congress is not absolute but conditioned upon its being made in pursuance of the Constitution. And a judicial tribunal, clothed by that instrument with complete judicial power, and, therefore, by the very nature of the power, required to ascertain and apply the law to the fact in every case or proceeding properly brought for adjudication, must apply the supreme law and reject the inferior statute whenever the two conflict." Departments derive authority from constitution. By the constitution of the state the government is divided into three coordinate branches: legislative, executive, and judicial. The constitution is the paramount law. Each department derives its authority from that source. Colorado State Bd. of Med. Exmrs. v. District Court, 138 Colo. 227, 331 P.2d 502 (1958)

As sovereignty resides in individuals. The individual, and not the state, is the source and basis of our social compact and that sovereignty now resides and has always resided in the individual. Colorado Anti-Discrimination Comm's. Case, 151 Colo. 235, 380 P.2d 34 (1962)

Right to comment on courts and judges. The growth of constitutional liberty has abolished arbitrary power of courts to inflict punishment and penalties upon persons commenting upon courts and judges or upon the character thereof, through contempt proceedings, and the right to make any such comment upon courts and judges in any respect, and as fully and freely as may be desired, is a right of every person, and is a right reserved to the people without any express reservation, as provided in this section. People ex rel.
